Pasco Tax Collector Mike Fasano Recognizes the Retirement of 30-Year Employee Denise “Dee” Brenneman

Pasco County Tax Collector Mike Fasano announces the retirement of longtime employee Denise “Dee” Brenneman. December caps the end of a distinguished 30-year career with the Pasco County Tax Collector’s Office. Dee not only served customers as a member of the customer service staff, she was an accomplished trainer who helped countless employees learn the often complex tasks of running a tax collector’s office.

“It is with both regret and joy that we see Dee retire from our office.” Mike Fasano states. “We regret that she will no longer be a part of our staff, serving the taxpayers as well as she has done for the past three decades. However, we do feel joy for her as she moves into this new stage of her life.”

During a farewell ceremony on December 20, Dee was presented with a plaque commemorating her career for the tax collector. The plaque states: “In appreciation and recognition of your courteous, professional and dedicated service to the Citizens of Pasco County 1983-2013.”

“I know I speak for all members of the Tax Collector’s team when I say we are all better individuals for having known and worked with Dee,” Mike Fasano adds. “I have no doubt that in the years to come she will have the opportunity to bring light into the lives of whomever she touches.”

“Thank you for allowing us to serve you”
