UPDATED: Pasco Tax Collector's Office to Temporarily Close Due to Uncertainty of Hurricane Ian

The five branches of the Pasco County Tax Collector's Office will be closing at 12:30 PM on Tuesday September 27, remain closed on Wednesday September 28, Thursday September 29 and reopen at 8:30 AM Friday September 30. This is due to the uncertainty posed to the Tampa Bay Area by Hurricane Ian. These closures and re-openings may change depending on any alteration in the path of the storm and its impact on Pasco County.

"We apologize for any inconvenience these closures may cause," Tax Collector Mike Fasano states. "To ensure the safety of our staff and our customers, it is prudent for us to temporarily close during this time. We encourage all residents to prepare for this storm. If all goes well, we plan to be back in business on Friday morning. On behalf of our tax collector staff and family, we thank you for your understanding."

During the closure, please visit our website at www.pascotaxes.com for any online information and services that may be available.
