Tax Collector Mike Fasano's Offices Raised $4,780 for "The Hope Shot"

Tax Collector Mike Fasano's five offices featured The Hope Shot as the charitable organization for the month of April 2025. $4,780 was raised to support this addiction recovery program. The Hope Shot is a community recovery non-profit that helps individuals move forward with a successful life overcoming addiction.

"Thank you to the Pasco County Tax Collector's Office for choosing us as your Charity of the Month," remarks Justin McPadden, President & CEO.

"Addiction may be ugly, but recovery is so incredibly beautiful—and we're grateful that you see that. Your support helps bring hope, healing, and second chances to our community."

"The Hope Shot is a wonderful organization that serves those overcoming the horrors of substance abuse," comments Tax Collector Mike Fasano. "The Hope Shot provides the next step in their recovery. Our five tax collector offices were honored to collect donations from our community to support The Hope Shot's efforts. Thank you to everyone who donated to help fund the programs offered by The Hope Shot."
